Conclusion of the 2017 National SUSK Congress

The Ukrainian Canadian Students' Union (SUSK) is pleased to report on the successful completion of the 2017 National SUSK Congress held in Ottawa, Ontario from May 4th to 7th, 2017. Approximately 50 delegates from post-secondary institutions across Canada came together for this year's National Congress, titled True North SUSK And Free.

"The 2017 Congress marked an unforgettable weekend experience. Celebrating Canada's sesquicentennial anniversary, our Congress attracted guests from other ethnocultural communities as well as delegates from previously unengaged cities. From collaborating with our partners, the Ukrainian Canadian Congress and the Ukrainian Embassy in Canada, we are thrilled to have offered our delegates an experience unique only to the nation's capital", said SUSK Congress Director Connor Moen.

The 4-day event was dedicated to encouraging and challenging leaders of the Ukrainian Canadian student community to come together, discuss and deliberate relevant questions and issues, and spearhead the future of youth leadership and involvement in Canada and Ukraine. The 2017 National SUSK Congress included the following program elements:

СОЮЗ УКРАЇНСЬКОГО СТУДЕНТСТВА КАНАДИ
UNION DES ÉTUDIANTS UKRAINIENS CANADIENS

- Motivating Volunteers
Maria Lahiffe, Volunteer Ottawa

- Ukrainian Student Organization 101
Connor Moen, SUSK National Coordinator

- Engaging Your Community
Ihor Michalchyshyn, UCC CEO

- Grants & Fundraising

- Marketing
Kate Headley, Principal MsCommuniKate PR

The 2017 Congress opened with special guest John Vellinga, CEO of Multiculture Bevco, who unveiled the exclusive launch of the company's rebranded product through a vodka-tasting event. This icebreaker was shortly followed by presentations from Ukrainian Student Organizations (USOs) from across the country. Each USO spoke for a few minutes about their fall and winter events that were held on their respective campus before presenting a 2-minute description on a "pitch event". This event could have been something that the group was proud of accomplishing during the past year or was very successful. In addition, each group shared one challenge their USO faced during the past year and some solutions and recommendations for dealing with similar situations in the future. Our winning USO, the McGill Ukrainian Students' Association, were awarded two complimentary passes to Canada's National Ukrainian Festival in Dauphin, Manitoba.

Participants were truly impressed with the size, scope, and professionalism of the conference and Congress. First-time Congress Delegate from the University of Guelph, Sophia Pidzamecky said, "This year marks my first time at a SUSK congress. In as short of a time as the Congress lasted, I felt that I as an individual, as well as a member of my club team, we were able to draw inspiration from experienced speakers and other clubs across Canada. There was an excellent program that included engaging activities spanning various levels of participation - from lectures to networking opportunities to zabavas - in conjunction with dynamic venues. The best venue was very much a tie between the Ukrainian Canadian Embassy and the Lago Bar & Grill overlooking Dow's Lake! I was also amazed by the take-away lessons I learned in my four days, as well as the sight-seeing and touring that was expertly integrated to diversify the program! I cannot wait until next year to reconnect on the national level. Until then, the Guelph Ukrainian Student's Club will implement themes from this year's congress. Thank you to all the people who made SUSK 2017 a great experience!"

Dayna Konopelny, Congress delegate from the recently revived club at the University of Winnipeg, shared: “When we started our club in the fall, none of us would have imagined that four of us would be attending the SUSK Congress in Ottawa. The Congress was an awesome opportunity for us to see how our club could continue to grow, reassured what we already started at our university, and was a great way to meet students from across the country. The foundation of our club at the University of Winnipeg was so important in bringing Ukrainian students together at our university. With the support of SUSK, we had access valuable resources. I can't wait to see what the UWUKRSA and SUSK can do together next year!”

SUSK Congress delegates had the opportunity to commemorate Canada's 150th anniversary first through a networking reception hosted at the Ukrainian Embassy to Canada on Friday May 5th, where His Excellency Ambassador Andriy Shevchenko spoke about youth empowerment in the diaspora. Delegates were then invited to participate in a collaborative event on Saturday May 6th with the Ukrainian Canadian Congress (UCC), where delegates joined with other ethnocultural communities to produce a video project depicting the multicultural experience in Canada. Saturday evening brought a zabava, aptly named 'Zabava150'. The zabava was accompanied by live music from Rossa from Montreal and Hloptsi z Mista from Toronto.

“The 2017 Congress in Ottawa was truly a weekend to remember. The fellowship created over the Congress was completely phenomenal. We successfully gathered students from East and West, shared a plethora of ideas and practices with one another, and learned immensely from engaging Congress sessions. Last year was an exciting period of growth for SUSK, and I look forward to furthering that growth together with my 2017-2018 Executive. The next few year is critical fostering continual grow and support SUSK and its member organizations for many years to come. I cannot wait to meet and collaborate with our diverse range of Ukrainian students across the country in any way possible and encourage all students to work together as well as with the broader Ukrainian Canadian community” – incoming Stephanie Nedoshytko from MacEwan University recalling the 2017 National SUSK Congress.
